READING OLYMPICS STARTS TODAY!!

Children are bringing home a packet today explaining our new reading competition! Since the Winter Olympics are about to begin, our incentive is patterned after them. There are MANY ways kids can participate, so please take the time to read the parent material in the packet so you can help them. Here is a basic run-down:

- U Every time your child reads for the indicated minutes for their grade, they need to fill out a ticket and turn it in in the hallway. They can win a prize!
- Students can decide to compete in certain Olympic “Events” which have certain requirements. They can do as many of these as they want to. Sometimes a book will count for more than one event. Completing these events could lead to winning a gold, silver or bronze medal!
- Get pledges! In order to make our reading also raise money for Heifer International, as you feel comfortable, ask your family and friends to pledge some money toward your child’s reading. You will collect the money, turn it in by March 4, and we will add it to our Chapel offerings for this quarter to be sent off to Heifer.

There is a LOT more information in your packet, so please read it first, and then ask your child’s teacher if you have questions. Basically, we ALL want our kids to know how VERY IMPORTANT reading is, so just get them reading, and we will help you record it in the proper ways! Thank you for partnering with us in your child’s education!
